Can the Jockey A retain the Title?

The league is back this week and the reigning champions the Jockey A will be hoping to secure another title, especially with the likes of the ex-Cockey Jockey Aled Evans joining their ranks. Will he add strength to the team and help their title defence? Only time will tell. The new season sees the return of both the Pride of Lions and the Oak A who will both be setting their sights on the top spot. Can either of these two talented teams knock the Jockey off the Top? we will have to wait and find out. The Jockey Wanderers will be making a league return this year with new signings Gary Gindrat and Wales under 23 captain Ryan Hamer adding strength to the side that will be led this year by the singles champion Callum Bishop. The newly named Punchbowl Samosas will be making a league return. This highly capable team will be looking to derail the Jockeys title defence as they meet them in week 1. The premiership will also see the return of everyone's favourite baldies the Oak B who will be looking to earn another season in the topflight. Both the Angel A and the Wandering Dragons will be hoping for better luck this season following a disappointing previous season. The Newly promoted Courthouse Judges which is being led by Steve Davies other son has a tough first game as they meet the Pride of Lions in week 1. Rounding off this years premiership line up will be the Crown and newly formed Angel B who will both be looking to leave there mark and causes upset in this very tough top division.

The Pussy Cats League Favourites?

The first division will see the return of the Pussy Cats being led by captain Tommy Adams who will be wanting to build on the Cats third place finish last season. They will be going into the season as the team to beat as they look to gain there first Welshpool Title. The Argae Pirates who were left shipwrecked last season will be looking to improve on their fourth-place finish and fight for the top spot. The Courthouse Bailiffs will also have their eyes on the top spot with new captain Gary Boulton wanting to lead his team to their first title. Division 1 will also see the return of both the Berriew Bandits and the Talbotrons who will want to hit the ground running and bring the title to Berriew. The Caerhowl Lions will be looking to cause an upset this season being led by their young captain Will Midmore. Both the Pussy Eaters and the Purring Pussy Cats will be returning this year rounding off the teams from Westbury. The Eaters will be looking to have a stronger start then last season being led this year by the experienced Ben Sexton. The Thirsty Fowels (formally the thirsty Dragon) will be bringing league pool back to the Pheasant this year, which is a venue that has seen much league success over the years. Will this old fortress bring the Fowels fortune this season? The league also welcomes 2 new Courthouse teams, the convicts being led by Amy Jones and the executioners being led by Jon Jacobs. Can either of these new teams filled with new players prove they have what it takes to bring home the title? The Jockey AAs have joined the league which sees the return of Harry Pritchard to League pool. This new team will be looking to leave their mark on the division as they will be wanting to bring more Titles to the ever-successful Jockey. Division 1 will be rounded off with the Smoking Dragons entering a new team which includes the likes of Captain Luke Evans, Lee Bocking, Matt Sherwood and Jordan Harding who have had a number of years out of the league but will be hoping to have a quick return to form and fight for a spot in the premiership.
